

BRONC

My dear friend
I have just received your letter and am very glad to hear from
you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I hope to hear from you again soon. I am, my dear friend,
very truly yours,
John

We, the annual staff, dedicate this 1966 Bronc to our beloved friend, Mr. David G. Curtis.

Mr. Curtis, who passed away on November 28, 1965, held the position of Superintendent here at Frenchtown High School for three months. During those short three months, Mr. Curtis became personally acquainted with the entire student body and developed individual friendships with every student. His cheerful disposition and loyal dedication to the welfare of the students were assets to the school and community.

A man of high ideals and unwavering dedication, David G. Curtis will remain forever in the grateful memories of F. H. S.

Our School Board formulates the school's policies.

Superintendent's Message

To the students:

The primary purpose of all education is to develop the individual into a happy, useful, and successful citizen. This development involves the ability to supply one's most pressing needs: producing more than one uses, and giving more than one takes. It involves the development of ideals, hopes, and ambitions. As a result, desirable character traits are formed: willingness to make present sacrifices for future good, and a feeling of social responsibility for others.

During your period of study at Frenchtown you have been encouraged to think creatively, to plan constructively, and to become personally responsible for your particular achievement in the future. You have been exposed to principles and ideas derived from differing economic, religious, and ethnic backgrounds, and given the freedom necessary to allow you to develop an awareness, understanding and appreciation for each.

Thus, your experience at Frenchtown provides not only training for your future vocational aspirations, but also a vital proving ground for development of attitudes and interests that will enable you to make a definite contribution to a society of many cultures.

Phil Barlock

Our Student Council officers:
Roger Nagy, president, Susie Kreis,
vice-president, Debbie Howell,
secretary, and Julaine Band, treasurer.

The Student Council, the Congress of Frenchtown High School, acts as the representative unit of the student body. The Council organizes the election of its own officers and of the cheerleaders. Through the Student Council, the student body is provided with a pop machine and pencil and paper vending machines.

Besides the work done by the Council for the benefit of the students while at school, it usually organizes a hay ride or a sleigh riding party. Also, in the past year, it has worked for the membership of Frenchtown High School in the National Honor Society.

Our Governing Body

Senior Journalists

We, the members of the Journalism Class, have been very busy this past year, publishing both the yearbook and the school newspaper.

Our staff is made up entirely of seniors, and we worked our hardest to put out a nice newspaper for the school. Staff members for both publications include: Sandy Howell, editor of the "Hi-Lite"; Ed Hanson, editor of the "Bronc"; Suzy Curtis, Ginny Kreis, Fay Roinstad, Stan Tordale, Corky LaFlesch, Linda McDonald, and Denise Morigeau.

The staff is very proud for this is the first year that the Frenchtown newspaper staff has won an All-State Rating.

A comment from our advisor, Mrs. Lee Cork: "The All-State rating for the Frenchtown Hi-Lite is the result of an enlightened, capable and hard-working staff with well-defined purposes and responsibilities."

Receive All-State Award

The Journalism Class takes a day off to visit the annual meeting of Montana journalists in Missoula.

It looks like our editor has to put this paper out by herself!

Here are a few of our staff members hard at work typing stencils for the "Hi-Lite".

Flag Bearers

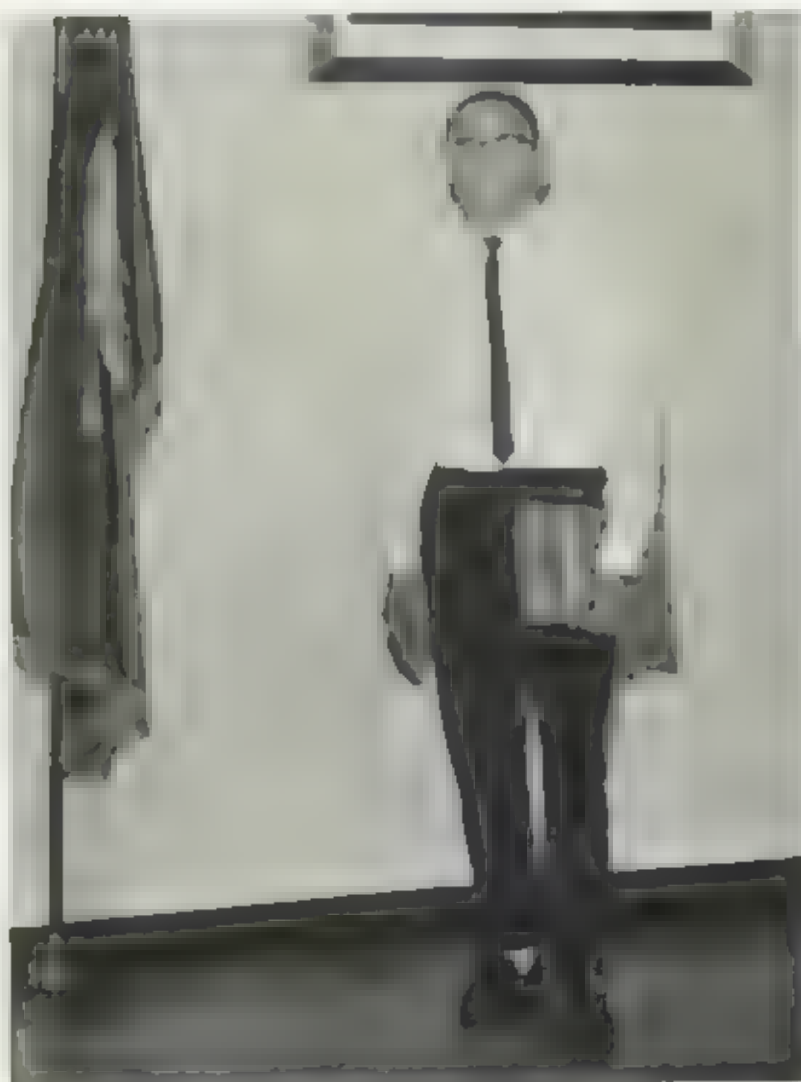

Sally Rupp and Pat Denman presented the flags in ceremony at each football and basketball home game throughout the year. Their lovely costumes and uniform precision were admired by all, and were a credit to the school and community.

Boys' and Girls' State

Edward Hanson and Patricia Denman, sponsored by the Frenchtown Boosters' Club and the Frenchtown P. T. A., represented our High School at Boys' State, in Dillon, and Girls' State, in Bozeman, for the year of 1965. Chosen for alternates were Roger Nagy and Virginia Kreis.

Delegates to Boys' and Girls' State are chosen on the basis of scholarship, honor, leadership, and citizenship.

Three seniors played their last high school football game this season of 1965.

Starting defense for the Frenchtown Braves for the 1965 season is shown below in their usual 3-3-2 formation. From left to right are pictured: Alan Williams, linebacker, Robert Willig, defensive end, Randy Hennes, linebacker, Roger Nagy, middle linebacker, Jim Haacke, center, Randy Howell, linebacker, Ron Stacy, linebacker, and Lloyd Greer, defensive end.

The reserves play an important role on the football field, for they are the varsity players of the years to come. The "guard" on the "end" of the bench is always ready for action and will undoubtedly see lots of it in the next few years.

Chorus

All-State Chorus Members

The chorus performed many numbers throughout the year which were very entertaining and nicely presented.

In May, three boys, Dave Touchette, Larry Parker, and Ed Hanson, were chosen to represent Frenchtown High School at the annual All-State Chorus.

Smaller groups, such as the Lively "5" and the Madrigals, add interest to the school year.

These groups did a fine job of providing entertainment at pep assemblies, half-time at basketball games, and other gatherings.

The Junior-Senior Prom King and Queen, Roger Nagy and Suzanne Curtis.

The Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by Mr. Don Klapwyk, worked diligently to make this year's prom a big success. The theme chosen was "April In Paris".

The Grand March, led by King Roger and Queen Suzy, in full swing, trailed with designs of French styling and streamers of white, orchid, and pale green.

'April in Paris'

Ray Thraikill and his orchestra provided excellent entertainment for the night.

Everyone enjoyed the good dancing music, and, as you can see, dancing space was hard to come by.

Guest speaker, Mr. Ron Nord, head basketball coach at the University of Montana, gives his talk to the seniors, "Game of Life".

The

Honors

Those receiving honors at the graduation ceremony were Larry Parker, Pat Denman, Roger Nagy, and Ed Hanson.

Larry received a trophy for Leadership and Cum Laude. Pat Denman received one for Leadership, also. Roger was given his trophy for Cum Laude, Citizenship, and Salutatorian. Ed Hanson was awarded Summa Cum Laude, Citizenship and Valedictorian.

Big Day

"Tomorrow Is Shaped From Today" was the title of the Salutatorian speech given by Roger Nagy.

Valedictorian, Ed Hanson, talks on the subject of "We Youth".

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1966, have arrived at the last milestone of our high school career with, we hope, a super abundance of mental endowment. Being most generous and of sound mind, we hereby bequeath a few of our worldly possessions to those poor, unfortunate, and underclassmen in hopes that they will use them to the best of their knowledge and ability.

To the future Seniors we leave all the money that is left after the Senior Trip.

To the future Juniors we leave our ability to stick together.

To the future Sophomores we leave the "F" in all its various forms.

To the future Freshmen the boys leave their outstanding football record and the girls leave their looks.

To the faculty we leave our sincerest thanks and appreciation for guiding our class throughout the past four years of education.

Since we have no further use for our sponsor, Mr. Frank Collins, we are willing to auction him off to the underclassmen. We are, however, sincerely grateful to him for all the help he has given us this past year.

SUZY CURTIS wills her shorthand speed to Peggy McDonald, and her nursery rhymes to Lloyd Greer.

SANDY HOWELL wills her cheerleading ability to Annette Henres, her position as Fin- Lite Editor to John Ockert, in hopes that he can keep the Journalism room tidy, her promptness to class to Coach Dick West, and her ability to always be right to Hayes Otoupalik.

FAYANN ROINSTAD wills her reading ability to Linda Adams, her Bookkeeping set to Mary Jane Charlo, in hopes that she passes, her ability to get along with teachers to Martin Hegel, and her peanut wrappers to Randy Howell.

GINNY BRFIS wills her lunch hours to Bruce Ochs, her typing ability to Marge Adams and her Shorthand tutor to Susie Kreis.

ROGER NAGY wills his ability to get along with history teachers to Debby Howell and his ability to jump hurdles to Coach Dick West.

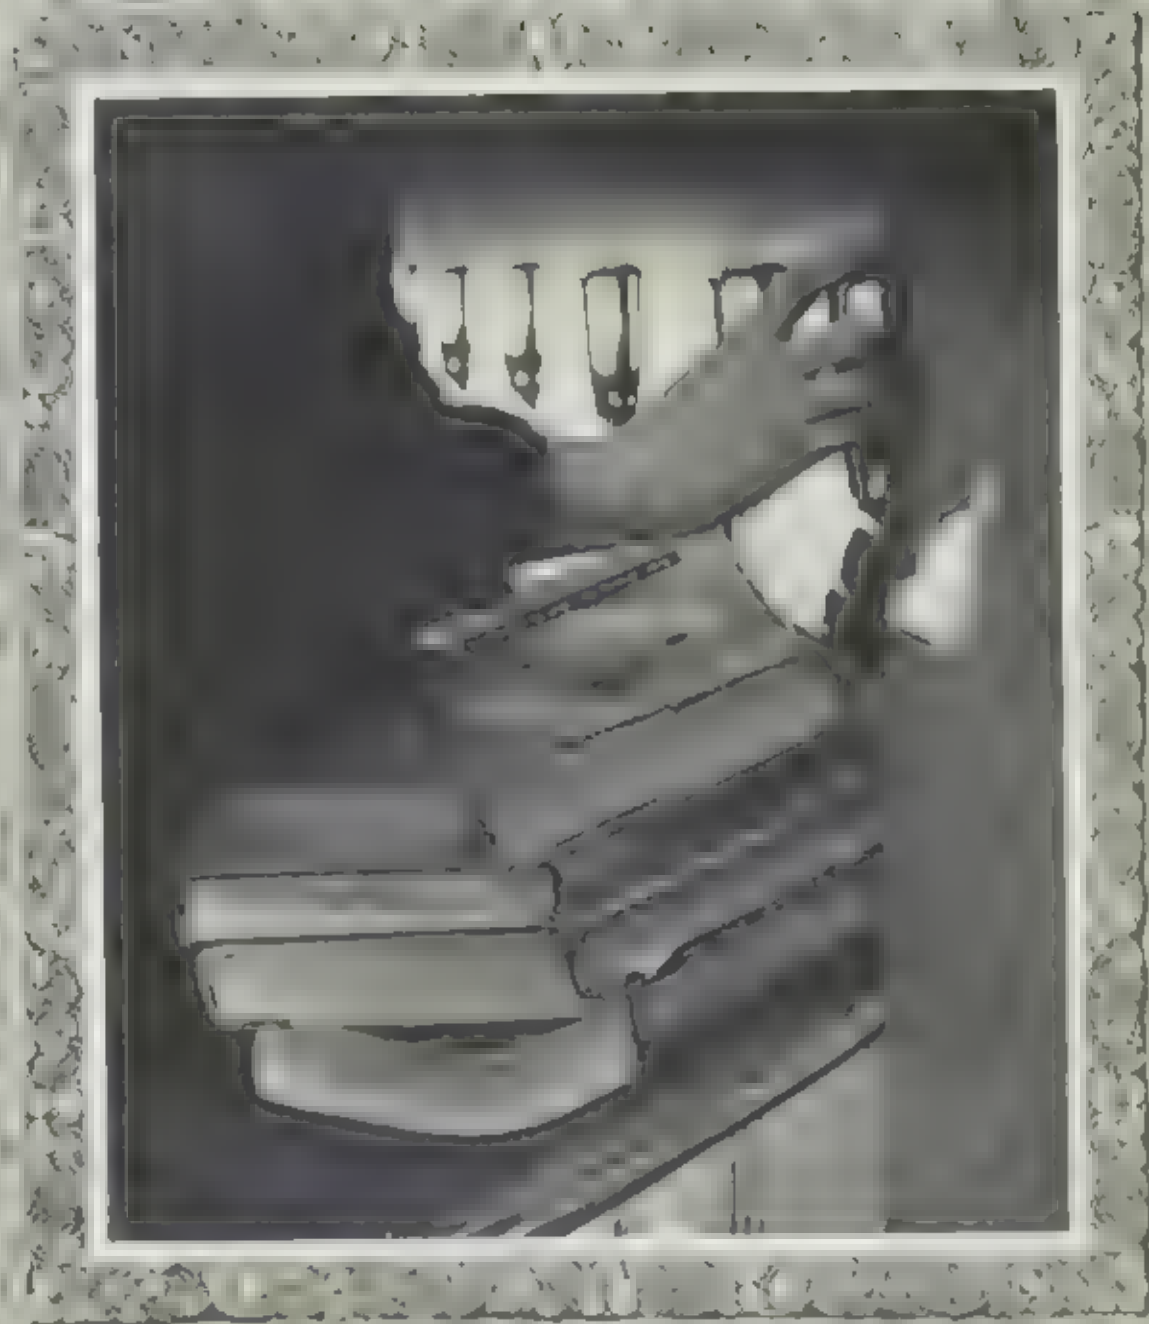

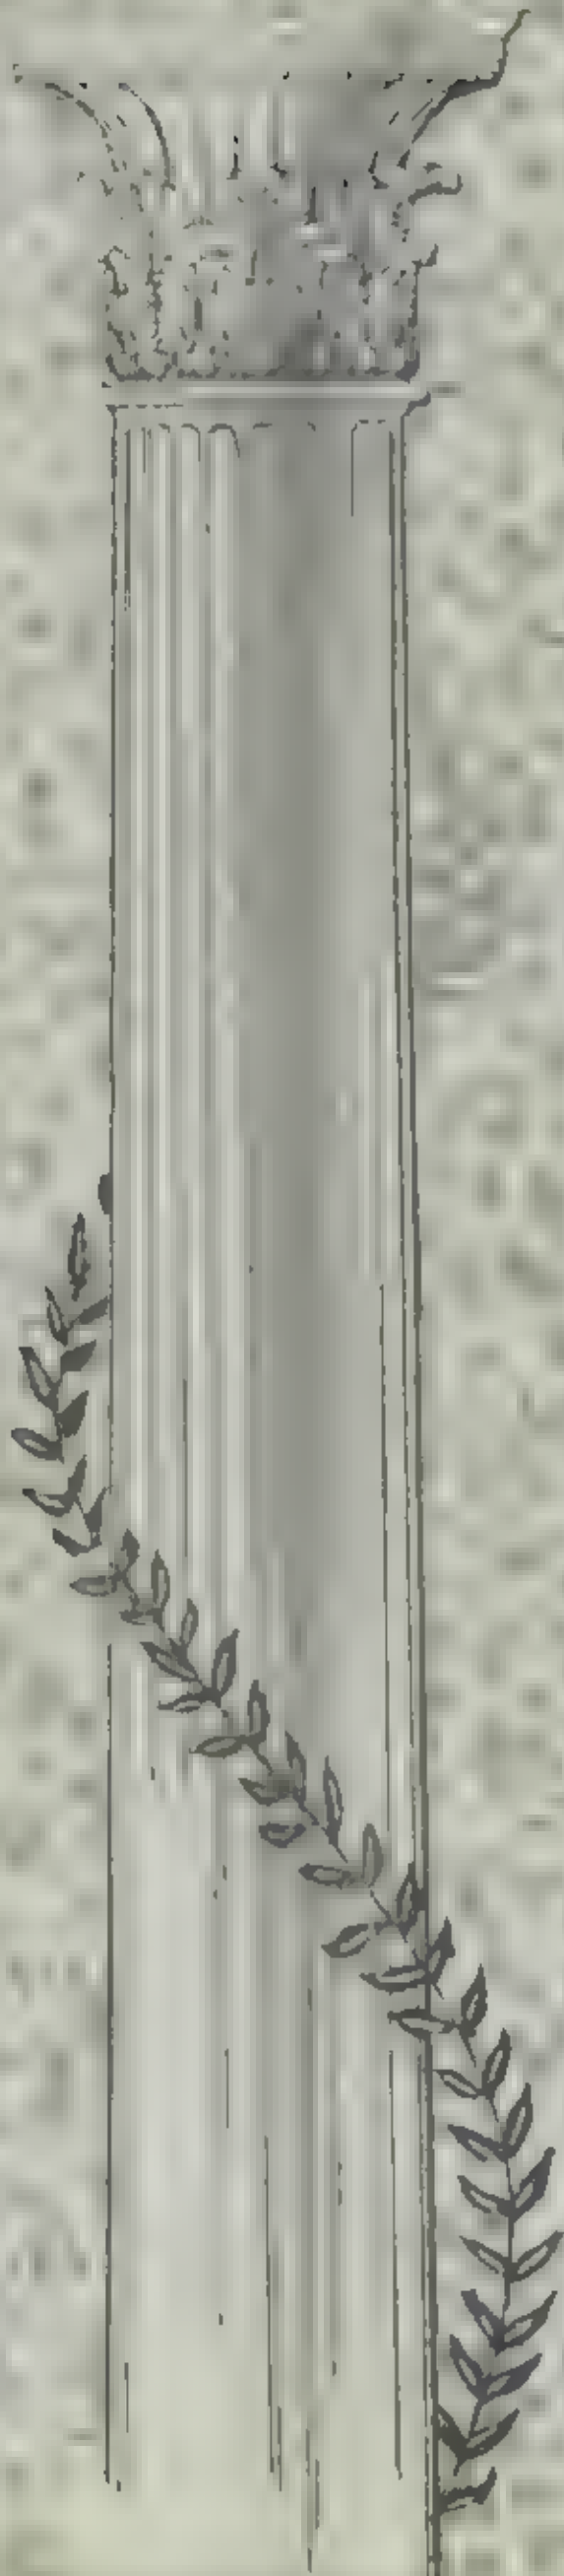

ED HANSON wills his scholastic abilities to Don Smith and his answer books to anyone who can find them.

DAVE JENKINS leaves his ability to get to Drawing Class on time to Mr. Frank Collins and his quietness to Kip Mason.

PAT DENMAN leaves her Lady Clairol to Alan Williams in hopes that he finds an appropriate color, her drawing kit to whoever has it with best wishes, and her Monday skip day to Albert Sample.

LARRY PARKER wills his ability to get good grades in Chemistry to J. D. Frehinger, his athletic prowess to Curt Schoening and his dramatic reading ability to Mr. Robert Martin.
